

Business Continuity Plan Summary

Kenmar Olympia, LLC (KOL) is the parent company of Kenmar Securities, LLC (KSEC), a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and of member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and Securities Investor Protection Corporation. KOL, KSEC and affiliates (the “Company”) share certain personnel, systems and office space. The Company’s firm-wide business continuity plan (BCP) is designed to respond to a significant business disruption by securing the firm’s books and records and promptly returning to business operations. The Company’s business continuity and disaster recovery plan is reviewed and approved annually by the CCO.

The Company’ BCP is designed to permit the Firm to resume operations as quickly as possible, given the scope and severity of the significant business disruption. Safeguarding our employees, business operations, financial health, protecting books and records and ensuring our clients can continue to reach us are critical. Our BCP plan addresses data backup and recovery, mission critical systems, financial and operational assessments, alternative communications with customers, employees, and regulators, critical supplier, contractor, banking and regulatory communications.

Virtually all of the Company’s priority records are maintained in cloud-based servers with daily backups to different geographical locations. Other hard copy documents are maintained with 3rd party vendors that house records in secured facilities. The Company does not custody customer funds or securities.

In the event of a significant business disruption, clients can contact us at 212-596-3480 which is a virtual PBX system that routes calls to key Company persons. If that system is not operational, then email info@kenmarolympia.com to connect. The Company will also attempt to update its websites www.kenmarolympia.com, or www.kenmarsecurities.com with additional information. Our US Mail address is 610 Fifth Avenue, PO Box 5537, New York, NY 10185.
